LEGAL FEE AFFIRMED
Santa Fe.—Judge Charles Brice's judgment in the district court for $860.81 in his suit against the estate of Aline Cardoner, rich Albuquerque widow, for legal services, was affirmed in the state supreme court.

Paul the little son of Peter Rockinbaugh, was operated on for a bad case of appendicitis, at Eddy County hospital the first of the week. The little lad was in very bad condition but bids fair to recover under the efficient nurse care he is receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Hogler of Frijoles, Texas, were in the city the first of the week on a flying trip. They tell us it is pretty dry in their locality but they have hopes of soon having rain as it has been raining all around them lately. Mr. Hogler, as secretary of the National Mohair Growers Association, is much encouraged over the prospect of a higher price for the commodity, which is advancing steadily in price.

Mrs. J. E. Frizzell and grandson, Blair Jacobs, who had spent the winter here, left Friday morning for their home at Beech Grove, Tennessee. They have been spending winters here for three years past, first for the grandson's health and latterly for the benefit of the climate on the health of Mrs. Frizzell. They have made many friends here during their stay with us and are always glad to welcome them on their annual return.

BORN:—Yesterday morning, the 30th instant, a baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker, the birth occurring at the Frederick home. The boy weighed six pounds, and all parties concerned are getting on well. Mr. Baker is with the Lee Moor Construction company and this is their first child.

Postmaster John Wells was taken to the Sisters' Hospital Wednesday and an operation performed from which he is reported doing as well as can be expected, with prospects good for an immediate recovery.
